The idea of the bungee run is simple. Two or three people get a bungee cord harness attached to them and line up in a lane. They each have a Velcro baggie in their hand. The goal is to run as far down your lane as you can and stick the baggie to your adjacent wall. Everybody is constantly pulled back by the bungee cord that is attached to their harness, so the farther they run, the harder they get pulled back. Needless to say, the bungee run rental creates some truly hilarious moments and is always a big hit at all kinds of parties. Watching someone tumble back after reaching the very limit of their run is unforgettable.
