Product Description

Large Outdoor Backyard Inflatable Home Theater Projection Screen For Advertising

Description:

You know what? We kind of live in a golden age of home cinema right now. As a kid my dream was a 32 inch TV, 32 inch these days would be classed as small. Anyway as a huge movie lover, movie night with the family is one of my favorite things to do. While we watch a lot of movies in the house, we also love to watch them outdoors as well. Sure you can do this on a little iPad and that is fine, but if you want the movies at home, you need a portable outdoor projector screen or if you want to go that extra mile an inflatable outdoor projector screen.
