Product Description

Purple Outdoor Playground Equipment Wrecking Ball Game Inflatable Last Man Standing

Description:

Wrecking ball game its a great inflatable, here four contestants climb on their podiums, there is a huge swinging ball in the centre, the aim of the game is to knock off your opponents by swing the ball at them, whilst maintaining balance yourself. This is a great inflatable for the players and for the spectators. We hire human demolition games to parties, fun days and team building events and it is always a great success. The human demolition zone game is very visual and always attracts attention. We have a wide range of fun inflatable game that are of a similar vein – the sweeper game, here the rotating arm speeds up to try and knock down players. The wrecking ball game is great fun - just like the industrial Wrecking Ball where the game originated from.
