Product Description

Cold-Resistant PVC Drop Stich Snowboarding , Inflatable Snow Air Board On The Ice Lake

Cold Weather SUP Paddling Tips

Want to keep stand-up paddling in the winter? I paddle year round and that means I need to be prepared for the changing weather.

There are a couple of advantages that I find winter paddle boarding to offer.

1.For one I find that I am often the only one out paddling and I love the peace and quiet. There are no (or very very few) power boats, no loud noises, no chaotic crowds. I will often have the whole area to myself (and whoever else is paddling with me). Consequently I find winter paddle boarding can be extremely peaceful.

2.It is also very exhilarating. As with any winter sport you will likely find that being out in the fresh cool air will feel invigorating. As an added bonus, after a good couple hours working out in cold weather you might also find that you sleep better at night.
