Product Description

Inflatable Twister Game Inflatable Mega Twister Body Inflation Game

How does it work:

First of all, find a flat, spacious, well-lit area. Then, unfold the playing mat and remove your shoes. In addition, be sure to wear comfortable clothes that you can easily move around in.

Next, choose one person who is the referee and controls the spinner. The referee makes sure that your hand or foot is placed properly on the colored dots. Step on the mat to start the game. The referee now spins the spinner and calls out where the needle lands. For example, "right hand green." All players now put their right hand on a green dot. The referee continues to call out hand and foot placements until the participating players have all been disqualified. The last person balancing is the winner!
